

Trek for Boys*

A Middle School Transition Program

Saturday, November 3, 2018
9:00 to 1:30 PM

How's life going for your 6th grader?

Middle school is a time of transition. Starting a new phase in school can be stressful. Your 6th-grade son may have questions, like:

- How can I handle the increased pressure of homework/getting good grades?
- How can I feel a sense of belonging without changing who I am to fit in?
- What can I do to limit everyday stress?
- What steps can I take to manage social media and gaming?

Trek for Boys is a fun and engaging workshop that will help him create strategies to make this transition less stressful! He will learn more about his own unique qualities and ways to stay true to himself. Trek features break-out sessions professionally facilitated by male facilitators, games, and Q&A with a panel of high school boys. This workshop gives your son the tools to navigate the ups and downs of middle school!

TREK is open to ALL 6th-grade boys from public, private, and homeschools. All parents are invited to a presentation from 9:15-10:45 a.m.

Trek for Boys is brought to you by:

Our programs are inclusive and welcoming to all.

From a past attendee:

"I thought that TREK was fun, even though I didn't want to go when my mom told me about it."

(This testimonial also stated important lessons learned about social media and about friendships.)
