Starting Tuesday September 24, 2019 @ 4:00PM $120

Instructor: Heidi Swarthout

You have a child that has a big imagination, is a natural story-teller, wants to be on stage? THIS is a class created for them! Instructor, Heidi Swarthout, will work with young actors and children new to acting in a way that is fun, silly and allows each student to bring their imaginative ideas to the stage! Collectively creating their own play will inspire the best in each child and introduce them to the world of acting! The 5 week session ends with a FREE showcase for family and friends on the SBT Main Stage! Classes: 9/24, 10/1, 10/8, 10/15, 10/22. Show: 10/24.

Starting Thursday September 26, 2019 @ 4:00PM $120

Instructor: Julie Bayer

This class is designed to help your budding actor get ready for the spotlight! As a natural next step, students will learn to hone their big imaginative spirit in a way that will benefit them on stage, re-creating stories of MAGIC & MONSTERS! This fun and fast paced class will teach young actors to "become a character" from the inside out using body, facial expression and voice with scripts. Students will also learn what to expect once they are cast in a show, preparing them for future auditions! The 5 week session ends with a free showcase for family and friends on the SBT main stage! Classes: 9/26, 10/3, 10/10, 10/17, 10/24. The show is after class on 10/24.

Starting Monday September 23, 2019 @ 4:30PM $100

Instructor: Lori Holm

SBT Youth Improv Circus offers an opportunity to jam, play games, learn physical comedy and receive personalized instruction. The curriculum is tailored to the experience level of the students, and all experience levels are welcome. The hour and a half weekly class builds confidence, helps young people give voice to their ideas, builds creativity, and supports team mindset in a nurturing and fun environment. The session ends with a free performance on the Steel Beam main stage in front of a live audience! Classes: 9/23, 9/30, 10/7, 10/21. Show: 10/24. NO CLASS on Columbus Day.
