

CHILDREN NEEDED FOR AUTISM RESEARCH STUDY EXPLORING COORDINATION AND BALANCE AT NIU

Children between 3 and 12 years of age with and without a diagnosis of autism are eligible to participate.

Children will engage in a variety of motor tasks, such as pulling a string, repeating a spoken sentence, or walking on a straight line.

Entire study takes about one-hour.

Children will receive a small toy.

Interested?

Please complete an interest form by going to

<https://www.niu.edu/huskieslab/participate/index.shtml>, calling The Human Speech Kinematics Experimental Studies (HUSKIES) Lab at 815-753-5211, or emailing us at huskieslab@niu.edu.

Questions?

Please reach out to Allison Gladfelter, PhD, CCC-SLP, agladfelter@niu.edu, or Doug Wallace, PhD, at dwallace@niu.edu

Our research lab is located in the NIU Speech-Language-Hearing Clinic DeKalb, IL 60115, or we can arrange to meet you at an alternative agreed upon location.

Northern Illinois University